W. C. T. U. Notes.

Woman's Christian Temperance Union meets Wednesday, 5 o'clock, p. m., in the chapel of the Christian Church.

The notes intended for the ROUNDABOUT last Saturday were lost on the way to the office. The fact was unknown to the writer until it was too late to prepare them again.

The "Scientific Temperance Education Bill" has passed both houses of Congress, and is now a law. It requires that the effects of alcohol and other narcotic poisons on the system be taught in all schools under control of the Government. The passage of the bill was a great victory for the W. C. T. U., as it was accomplished by the indefatigable efforts of our own Mrs. M. H. Hunt, National Sup't of Scientific Instruction, who remained in Washington until it was a law.

Wednesday, June 9th, being "Flower Mission Day," Mrs. W. H. Munnell, and Mrs. A. Clark came up from Louisville and visited the Penitentiary, assisted by Rev. Mr. Kavanaugh, several members of Frankfort W. C. T. U., and teachers of the prison Sunday-school. The chapel had been beautifully decorated for the occasion by the inmates, and their faces told, that to them it was a "Red Letter Day." The services began with singing "Jesus, Lover of my Soul," prayer by the Chaplain, history of the "Flower Mission," and reading scripture text prepared by Miss Jennie Cassidy, a short but beautiful and appropriate talk by Mrs. Clark, who finished her address by repeating the Lord's prayer, in which all the prisoners joined. Service in the chapel closed with "Praise God from Whom all blessings flow." After that the female department and hospital were visited, and a bouquet with its text card attached given to each one. With the simple gift, went an earnest prayer that God's word printed on the little cards might find its way to the heart of the recipient.

Men and women, white and black, gathered about the ladies to inquire after and send loving messages to their friend, Miss Jennie Cassidy, who from her sick bed was at that hour making intercession at the Throne of Grace for them.

Resolutions

Of the Ladies' Aid Society of Providence Church, Franklin county, Ky., on the death of Mrs. W. J. Williams:

With sad hearts and tearful eyes we meet to pay a tribute of respect and love to our sister, Mrs. W. J. Williams, who was the president of this society. It would be difficult to find one who combined so many traits of Christian character as our dear sister whose loss we mourn. Her life, though short, was filled with deeds of kindness and love, and her sympathetic spirit won the hearts of all who knew her. To us her death may seem untimely, but God who gave her life and supported her in its close, is too wise to err. When with bleeding hearts we view her grave the comforting thought comes to us, "she is not dead but sleepeth"—only the frail body lies here, the spirit has entered into that rest which remains for the people of God, and today sings with the redeemed around the throne, "Glory, glory to God."

Whereas, our beloved sister has been called from our midst by an all-wise God, it is therefore resolved

1. That with stricken hearts we bow to the will of God and accept this bereavement as the dispensation of a kind and merciful Father.

2. That we cherish the memory and follow her example, and that her chair in this society remain unoccupied for six months.

3. That we tender to her husband, our beloved pastor, and her bereaved family our heart-felt sympathy and love, and pray God to afford them abundant consolation.

4. That these resolutions be placed upon our minutes and a copy furnished to her husband and family.

By order of the society, May 31, 1886.

Bridgeport.

Beans and potatoes next. Cabbage plants are about all set. Gardens are generally doing well. Wheat harvest about ready to commence.

Prof. T. J. Hill, of Shelby county, took in the village last Tuesday. Cherry tarts have subsided. Apple dumplings to the front.

Mr. J. H. Bailey has returned home from a trip to Cincinnati.

Road working is quite fashionable just now, though not at all popular. The sick are all better. No new cases to report, so far as we are advised.

The watermelon prospect is not as flattering as it was this time last year. Mr. F. M. Scofield's cow produces 14 pounds of butter per week. Said to be the boss.

Regular services at Bridgeport Christian Church to-morrow at 11 o'clock, a. m.

The election last Saturday passed off quietly. But few votes were cast. Mr. James Harrod was elected as school trustee.

Mr. F. M. Scofield wishes it distinctly understood that he will not make the race for Sheriff—emphatically no.

Republican Meeting.

FRANKFORT, KY., June 7th, 1886.

At a postponed meeting of the Republicans of Franklin county, held at the law office of Judge W. H. Sneed, Capt. Ed. M. Drane, the chairman of the Franklin County Republican Committee called the meeting to order and requested Major Thos. J. Hutchison to act as secretary. Capt. Drane then stated the object of the meeting to be for the purpose of consulting with regard to what would be for the best interests of the party; would it be better to allow each candidate to announce himself as the Republican candidate for the office he desired?

Mr. Henry Gayle moved that this convention do now proceed to nominate candidates for the county offices to be voted for at the August election. Carried.

The chair then declared nominations in order, when the following ticket was unanimously selected:

For County Judge, V. Berberich; Circuit Clerk, Junie Todd; County Clerk, A. B. Hammond; Sheriff, Marion Scofield; Assessor, David Dalton; Coroner, Christopher Merchant; Jailer, Eli McDaniel; County School Superintendent, Lemuel Wentworth; Surveyor, Capt. Jo. H. Bailey; County Attorney, Isaac T. West.

Every precinct in the county was represented by an intelligent set of gentlemen, and it is to be hoped that the Republicans of Franklin county will organize in each precinct, make a bold front, and try to elect our men. A long pull, a strong pull, and let us pull all together to secure success.

Louisville Tobacco Market.

FURNISHED BY GLOVER & DURRETT, PROPRIETORS LOUISVILLE TOBACCO WAREHOUSE.

The sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 2472 hhds. There has been a little stronger feeling on all grades of Burley tobacco, but no material improvement. It now looks as if there will be no material change in the market until it is ascertained what the planting of the new crop will be. Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 61,780 hhds. Our market now shows a stock of 21,489 hhds, which includes both Burley and Dark tobacco, sold and unsold. The following quotations fairly represent our market for new Burley tobacco:

Dark Trash	2.75 to 3.50
Colony Trash	3.50 to 4.50
Common Lugs, not colory	4.00 to 5.00
Colony Lugs	5.00 to 7.50
Common Leaf, not colory	5.50 to 8.00
Good Leaf	8.50 to 13.00
Fine Leaf	13.00 to 15.00
Select Wrappery Tobacco	15.00 to 18.00

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Sult, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles and was relieved of rheumatism of 10 years' standing." Abraham Hare, Druggist, Belleville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the liver, kidneys or Blood. Only a half-dollar a bottle at Jos. Lecompte's drug store.

Have been using Tongaline upon a patient who has been suffering with neuralgia for fifteen years; the effect was remarkable. It gave immediate relief.

Most Remarkable Case.

During the summer of 1884 I suffered from blood poisoning, the result of a gun-shot wound received during the "late unpleasantness;" my attention was called to the remedy of S. S. S. through the public press, and I wrote to the proprietors of that medicine, describing my case, which I repeat for the benefit of other sufferers. The ball struck the elbow joint and went through. It completely crushed all the articulative surface of the humeral so that both condyles and say four inches of the shaft of the bone were removed by the surgeon. It also severed the ulnar nerve. The operation left the arm much shortened and limber, but it was very useful. Some time in the fall of 1879 it began to swell and inflame below the elbow, and soon after it suppurred and discharged horribly offensive matter. The bone spread until the entire forearm was a putrid mass, encroaching both on the back and palm of the hand. I was warned by the surgeons that this might happen in after life from nerve and blood poverty below the elbow. My condition may be imagined at that time. The wound was so offensive that I could hardly remain in a close room. I tried many remedies, external and internal, but with no avail. In June, 1884, I saw the advertisement of Swift's Specific in the city papers and I wrote immediately to the house in Atlanta, receiving the following as a reply: "We fear our S. S. S. will do you no good, except as a tonic." The very frankness of the reply induced me to try it. I was a good patient and rigidly followed the directions. The first bottle nearly drove me crazy with symptoms I cannot describe, but it (and I feel a lump in my throat as I write it) removed the frightful smell which had tormented me and all who came in contact with me for so long a time. As I continued the use of the medicine, say in a month or six weeks, marked improvement was apparent, until, as the winter set in, it had so healed that I could and did wear a sleeve on my underclothing, which I had not done in three years before. The ulcer is very obstinate, and it was not until the middle of 1885 that it was entirely well. All redness and soreness has disappeared. Hair is growing on the arm as before and I ascribe all this to Swift's Specific. Had I dreamed of such success I would have had the arm photographed before taking the medicine, that all might see the improvement. I have lived here for forty years, and am well known, and am ready to answer all inquiries from sufferers in regard to this case.
